

PRELIMINARY PROGRAM SUMMARY

2019 South Australian State Community Landcare Conference

Bordertown, South Australia October 28-30, 2019

'Landcare Unearthed – Celebrating Diversity, Managing Landscapes'

MONDAY 28 OCTOBER

CONFERENCE TOURS

Tours will leave from the Tatiara Civic Centre, Bordertown (DEPARTURE TIME):

TOUR 1: Bank Australia Conservation Heritage (9.00am)

TOUR 2: PIRSA Carbon Neutral Red Meat (9:30am)

TOUR 3: Landcare Australia 30 Year Anniversary Tour (7:30am)

TOUR 4: Butcher Gap – Cockies Helping Cockies (9.00am)

TOUR 5: Aboriginal Lands Trust Poocher and Mundulla Swamps (9.00am)

Masterclass in Change by Les Robinson: Passion mashing: putting the zap into Landcare. (1500-1700)

CONFERENCE WELCOME RECEPTION (1800-1930)

Masterclass in Change by Les Robinson: An evening of Changeology. (2000-2200)

TUESDAY 29 OCTOBER

WELCOME TO COUNTRY 0830

KEYNOTE SESSION (0915-1030)

Rick Callaghan – 'The economic imperative of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander (First Nations) Land & Sea Landcare Programs within Australia.'

Jason Alexandra – 'Changing the landscapes, mindscapes and waterscapes of the Anthropocene'

PANEL SESSION – ASPECTS OF CHANGE (1100-1230)

Anika Molesworth - Farmers for Climate Action

Fiona Rasheed - South East Natural Resources Management Board

Tracey Grosser - Migrant Resource Centre

Lu-Wei Spinks - Youth Environmental Leaders

Jason Alexandra - Farmer, Consultant and Researcher

Rick Callaghan - Yaran Business Services

Les Robinson - Enabling Change

CONCURRENT SESSION 1 (1315-1515)

Engagement – engagement, communication & community development

Kim Blenkiron and Mary Crawford Building the capacity of rural women on the Eyre Peninsula – a partnership approach

Benjamin Page Engaging the Disengaged: Revealing the barriers to youth environmental volunteering in South Australia

Jill Woodland and Jenny Deans It all starts with connecting to nature | Engaging the wider community with nature: nature journaling

Eliza Rieger and Jacqui Wilson Bringing acid soils to citizen science

Security – food, climate, social, environmental, economic security – including biosecurity
Vicki-Jo Russell	Trees For Life planning for boom and bust
Alex Mason	Securing Silver Daisy in the face of a changing climate
Nick Hunt	Photo-point monitoring in a red gum landscape
Craig Liddicoat	Biodiversity, environmental microbiomes and human health
Enterprise – enterprise, technology and innovation
Claire Harding	No data? No problems: using water observations from space to show changes in wetlands across a landscape scale
Mark de Jong	South East Flows Restoration Project: a Coorong safety net
Bruce Wood	The application of cell grazing as a farming practice and its adaptability to support conservation and land management
Rowan Reid and Andrew Stuart	Marrying conservation and profit from our farm trees
Partnership – partnerships and planning
Dragos Moise	Restoring Para Woodlands
Jeremy Freeman	Community based landscape scale planning
Gerry Butler	Community Landcare partnerships in the Campbelltown City Council
Dulcie Wilton	Ranger programs in the Nantawarrina Indigenous Protected Area
PLENARY (1545-1700)
Dan Rogers	How ecological science informs management decisions – and vice versa
Vicki-Jo Russell	Nature Values
Becky Hirst	Facilitated discussion
CONFERENCE GALA DINNER AND AWARDS EVENT (1800-2300)
WEDNESDAY 30 OCTOBER
Breakfast workshop: Nature Journaling (0730-0830)
Acknowledgement of the Winners of the 2019 State Landcare Awards (0845)
KEYNOTE SESSION (0910-1045)
Anika Molesworth – ‘Farmers Cultivating Climate Leadership’ , Farmers for Climate Action Lachlan Monsbrough – ‘Risk is climate constrained’ , (tbc), Rabobank
CONCURRENT SESSION 2 (1115- 1245)
Engagement – engagement, communication & community development
Damien Bickley & Vanessa Freebairn	Empowering our future environmental leaders
Geraldine Turner	Wattle happen with our endangered Whibleyana?
Bronwyn Perryman	Kids helping Cockies: educating and involving local schools in recovery initiatives for the iconic, endangered South-eastern Red-tailed Black-Cockatoo
Geoff Kuehne	The view from both sides of the gate: interviews with

Security – food, climate, social, environmental, economic security – including biosecurity
Nissanka Prasangi De Silva	Harnessing ecological and genomic approaches to restore Australian grasslands in the face of global change
Andrew Randell Fairney	Innovative grassland restoration in the face of an extinction crisis
James Hall	How high can my carbon levels go?
Scott VC Groom	Effect of native vegetation proximity on bee diversity and Lucerne (Medicago sativa) seed set
Enterprise – enterprise, technology and innovation
Dr Briony Horner & Glen Christie	Bang for your buck – revegetating arid sites using coloniser species
Aimee Linke	Creating the River Murray Dark Sky Reserve – What does the night sky have to do with Landcare?
Dana Miles	Wildlife for Wine – supporting our grape growers to create a balance between our environment and viticulture
Walter Tjami	APY Pastoral Development – The Next 10-20 years
Partnership – partnerships & planning
Faith Coleman	Coorong Environmental Trust – What is it and why do we do it?
Leda Sivak	Health and wellbeing impacts of reclaiming Indigenous languages – the Barngala Language and Wellbeing Study
Cyril Kartinyeri & Paul Baker	Healthy Country Healthy Culture: Narungga Healthy Country Planning
Tim Vale	Birds and Bogs: what 25 years of dipping our toes in the swamp has taught us
PLENARY (1330-1530)
Networking and what that means when we leave the conference
Farewell to Country (1530-1600)	